

2015
INTERNATIONAL
HUGO KAUDER COMPETITION
for VIOLA

LIVE COMPETITION

Friday, June 5th
9am – 5pm

Neighborhood Music School
100 Audubon Street · New Haven

Free

WINNERS CONCERT

Saturday, June 6th
1:30 – 3:30pm

Yale University
Whitney Humanities Center
53 Wall Street · New Haven

Free · Doors open at 1pm Concert followed by reception with musicians

EXPERIENCE A CLASSICAL MUSIC COMPETITION

premiering compositions by Viennese composer Hugo Kauder (1888 – 1972). Eight violists under 35 years of age have been selected in a recorded round to perform in front of a live jury.

Competition judges are Misha Amory, violist for the Brentano Quartet, the Quartet-in-Residence at Yale School of Music; Marka Gustavsson, member of the viola and chamber music faculty at Bard College and Conservatory, and violist of Bardian Ensemble; and Nardo Poy, member of the Orpheus Chamber Orchestra, violist for the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra since 1990, and principal violist with the American Symphony Orchestra.

For more information visit hugokauder.org.

ABOVE, LEFT TO RIGHT Brenton Caldwell, Minjung Chun, Rachyl Duffy, Sarah Hart, Ting-Ru Lai, Aurelien Pederzoli, Yuan Qi, Caeli Smith