

Yale University
2017/18 Wilbur Cross Medalist

DONNA HARAWAY

OCTOBER 23 & 24

Symposium:
THE
CYBORG MANIFESTO

Monday, October 23
10am-noon
Whitney Humanities
Center, 53 Wall St

Symposium:
CRYSTALS, FABRICS,
AND FIELDS

Tues, October 24
10am-noon
Peabody Museum,
170 Whitney Ave

Keynote Speech
MAKING KIN: MULTISPECIES ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE
Monday, October 23 @ 5pm
Whitney Humanities Center
53 Wall Street, Auditorium

Donna Haraway is Distinguished Professor Emerita in the History of Consciousness Department at the University of California Santa Cruz. Attending to the intersection of biology with culture and politics, Haraway's work explores the string figures composed by science fact, science fiction, speculative feminism, speculative fabulation, science and technology studies, and multispecies worlding.

Sponsors: WGSS, HSHM, Mandelbaum & Byrnes Fund for LGBT Studies, Whitney Humanities Center, Franke Program, American Studies, Sociology