The Franke Lectures are made possible by the generosity of Richard and Barbara Franke, and are intended to present important topics in the Humanities to a wide and general audience.

What Translation Means
The Extent and Impact of Translation in America

Harold Augenbraum
American writer, editor, and translator

Tuesday, February 21 • 5:00 pm
Whitney Humanities Center, Room 208 • 53 Wall Street