SYNOPSIS

Between the Lines is a contemporary play set in urban India, where well-educated, affluent couples find themselves caught between modernity and tradition. The play explores the relationship between a lawyer couple who end up arguing on opposite sides of a criminal trial.

ABOUT CINEPLAYS

CinePlay a new form that cinematically captures a theater production, creating a new viewing experience for audiences. It expands the reach of stories contained in theatre, by overcoming the constraints of economics, geography, language, and accessibility.

NANDITA DAS BIOGRAPHY

Nandita Das has acted in more than 40 feature films in 10 different languages. She made her directorial debut with Firaaq in 2008 and Between the Lines marks her debut as a playwright and theater director. She is a passionate advocate for issues of social justice and human rights. In 2011, Nandita Das was the first Indian to be inducted into the Hall of Fame of the International Women's Forum. She was on the jury of Cannes Film Festival twice (2005 and 2013). The French Government conferred her with the Knight of the Order of Arts and Letters, their prestigious civilian award. Currently, she is at Yale as a World Fellow.
