

THE 2018 TANNER LECTURES ON HUMAN VALUES

Whitney Humanities Center · Yale University · 53 Wall Street · Auditorium

— Achille Mbembe, University of the Witwatersrand —

BORDERS IN THE AGE OF NETWORKS

TUESDAY, MARCH 27 • 5:00 PM

The New Global Mobility Regime

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28 • 5:00 PM

The Idea of a Borderless World

THURSDAY, MARCH 29 • 10:30 AM

Michael Denning and Inderpal Grewal
in conversation with Achille Mbembe

The Tanner Lectures on Human Values were established by the American scholar, industrialist, and philanthropist Obert Clark Tanner, who hoped that these lectures would contribute to the intellectual and moral life of humankind. Both lectures and the panel discussion are free and open to the public.