

The Ancient Quarrel: Philosophy
and Literature

Part I Morality
and Literature

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23 5 pm • Auditorium

The Ancient Quarrel: Philosophy
and Literature

Part II
Metaphysics
and Literature

THURSDAY, MARCH 24 5 pm • Auditorium

TANNER LECTURES ON HUMAN VALUES, SPRING 2011 • WHITNEY HUMANITIES CENTER

Rebecca Newberger Goldstein

renowned novelist and philosopher

Can a Novelist Write Philosophically?

Panel discussion with
Rebecca Newberger
Goldstein
Harry Frankfurt
Michael Cunningham
and chaired by
Amy Hungerford

FRIDAY, MARCH 25 10:30 am • Auditorium

The Tanner Lectures on Human Values were established by the American scholar, industrialist, and philanthropist Obert Clark Tanner, who hoped that these lectures would contribute to the intellectual and moral life of humankind. The lectures are free and open to the public.

