

THE 2016 TANNER LECTURES ON HUMAN VALUES

Whitney Humanities Center • Yale University • 53 Wall Street • Auditorium

INTERPRETING NON-VIOLENCE

JUDITH BUTLER

University of California Berkeley

Why Preserve the Life of the Other?

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30 • 5 PM

Legal Violence: An Ethical and Political Critique

THURSDAY, MARCH 31 • 5:30 PM

A Conversation with Judith Butler, Paul North, and Jason Stanley

FRIDAY, APRIL 1 • 10:30 AM

Limited seating. First come, first seated.

The Tanner Lectures on Human Values were established by the American scholar, industrialist, and philanthropist Obert Clark Tanner, who hoped that these lectures would contribute to the intellectual and moral life of humankind. Both lectures and the panel discussion are free and open to the public.