

The recent op-ed piece in the New York Times, “Why Jews Are Worried – Deborah E. Lipstadt on the Rising Anti-Semitism in Europe” has unleashed a storm of response.

Come be part of an intellectual conversation to explore this timely subject with leading scholars in the field.

Wednesday,
September 17
5:30-7:00pm

*Sylvia Slifka Chapel
2nd floor Slifka Center*

Sponsored by Joseph Slifka Center for Jewish Life at Yale and Yale Program for the Study of Antisemitism.

This program was made possible by generous support from the Henry Kohn Endowment Fund as well as the Benjamin (Yale 1962) and Barbara Zucker Lecture Series.

Antisemitism today:

What’s causing it, & what - if anything - can we do about it?
